In this historical account Andy Turner, the Former Director of Sport and 1st XV Rugby Coach at The High School from 1974 to 2005, takes us on a remarkable journey through six decades of rugby excellence. From its humble beginnings in 1944-1945 when Mr Sydney Gahan, the classics master, introduced rugby to the school, to the unforgettable, undefeated season led by the first captain, Douglas Honeybunn, this book captures the evolution of rugby at The High School over the years.
